The humble petition of Sarasvati Bai widow of the late, T S Bhimasena Rau, ex 2nd grade clerk, General & Revenue Secretariat, most respectfully sheweth

1 That the petitioner's husband died on 27th December, 1910, of Phthisis, leaving behind him an aged mother the petitioner and four children, (2 boys aged 12 and 7 respectively and 2 unmarried girls 11 and 6 respectively)

2 That the deceased has not insured his life in the Mysore State Life Insurance, the only property the deceased has left is a house in Basvangudi which at present fetches a rent of Rs 15/- a month and an Insurance in a private Company which is, however, encumbered and that this income is wholly inadequate for the maintenance of the petitioner and the four children together with the education of the boys and the marriage of the two girls

3 That the funeral experses incurred by the family were met with great difficulty and with the help of friends and well-wishers of the deceased and that the petitioner's pitiable condition is well-known to Messers K S Chandrasekara Iyer, H V Nanjundayya, C S Balasundram Iyer, and other officers of the State under whom the deceased was long serving

4 That the deceased has served the Mysore Government, faithfully and honestly in various capacities for a period of about 22 years during which on occasions he had to do very arduous work such as arranging for the tour of His Highness the Maharajah, in Burma, arranging for camps in the last Delhi Durbar, and being in charge of the arrangements, connected with the reception and entertainment of the members of the Representative Assembly etc , during the Dasara Seasons

5 That just before his death, the deceased had put in an application to Government for a Gratuity

6 That in consideration of the long and faithful services rendered to Government by the deceased and in consideration of almost the destitute condition in which the petitioner and her children now find themselves, the Government of His Highness the Maharajah may be graciously pleased to award scholarships to the two sons of the Deceased for their education till they reach their age of Majority

For which act of Kindness and Grace the petitioner will as in dut bound ever

ever pray
